In 1998, the Maryland Judiciary, with support from the Maryland General Assembly, established circuit court family divisions in Maryland's five largest jurisdictions. These were established in Anne Arundel County, Baltimore City, Baltimore County, Montgomery County and Prince George's County. In addition, the Judiciary has established family services programs in each of Maryland's smaller jurisdictions. Each jurisdiction, regardless of size, has worked to establish a variety of services and to refocus its case management to ensure the thorough and holistic treatment of families. For more information about services available in local courts, click on the county below.
